WELCOME TO MARVEL SYSTEM

Welcome to Marvel System – Global Consultancy:

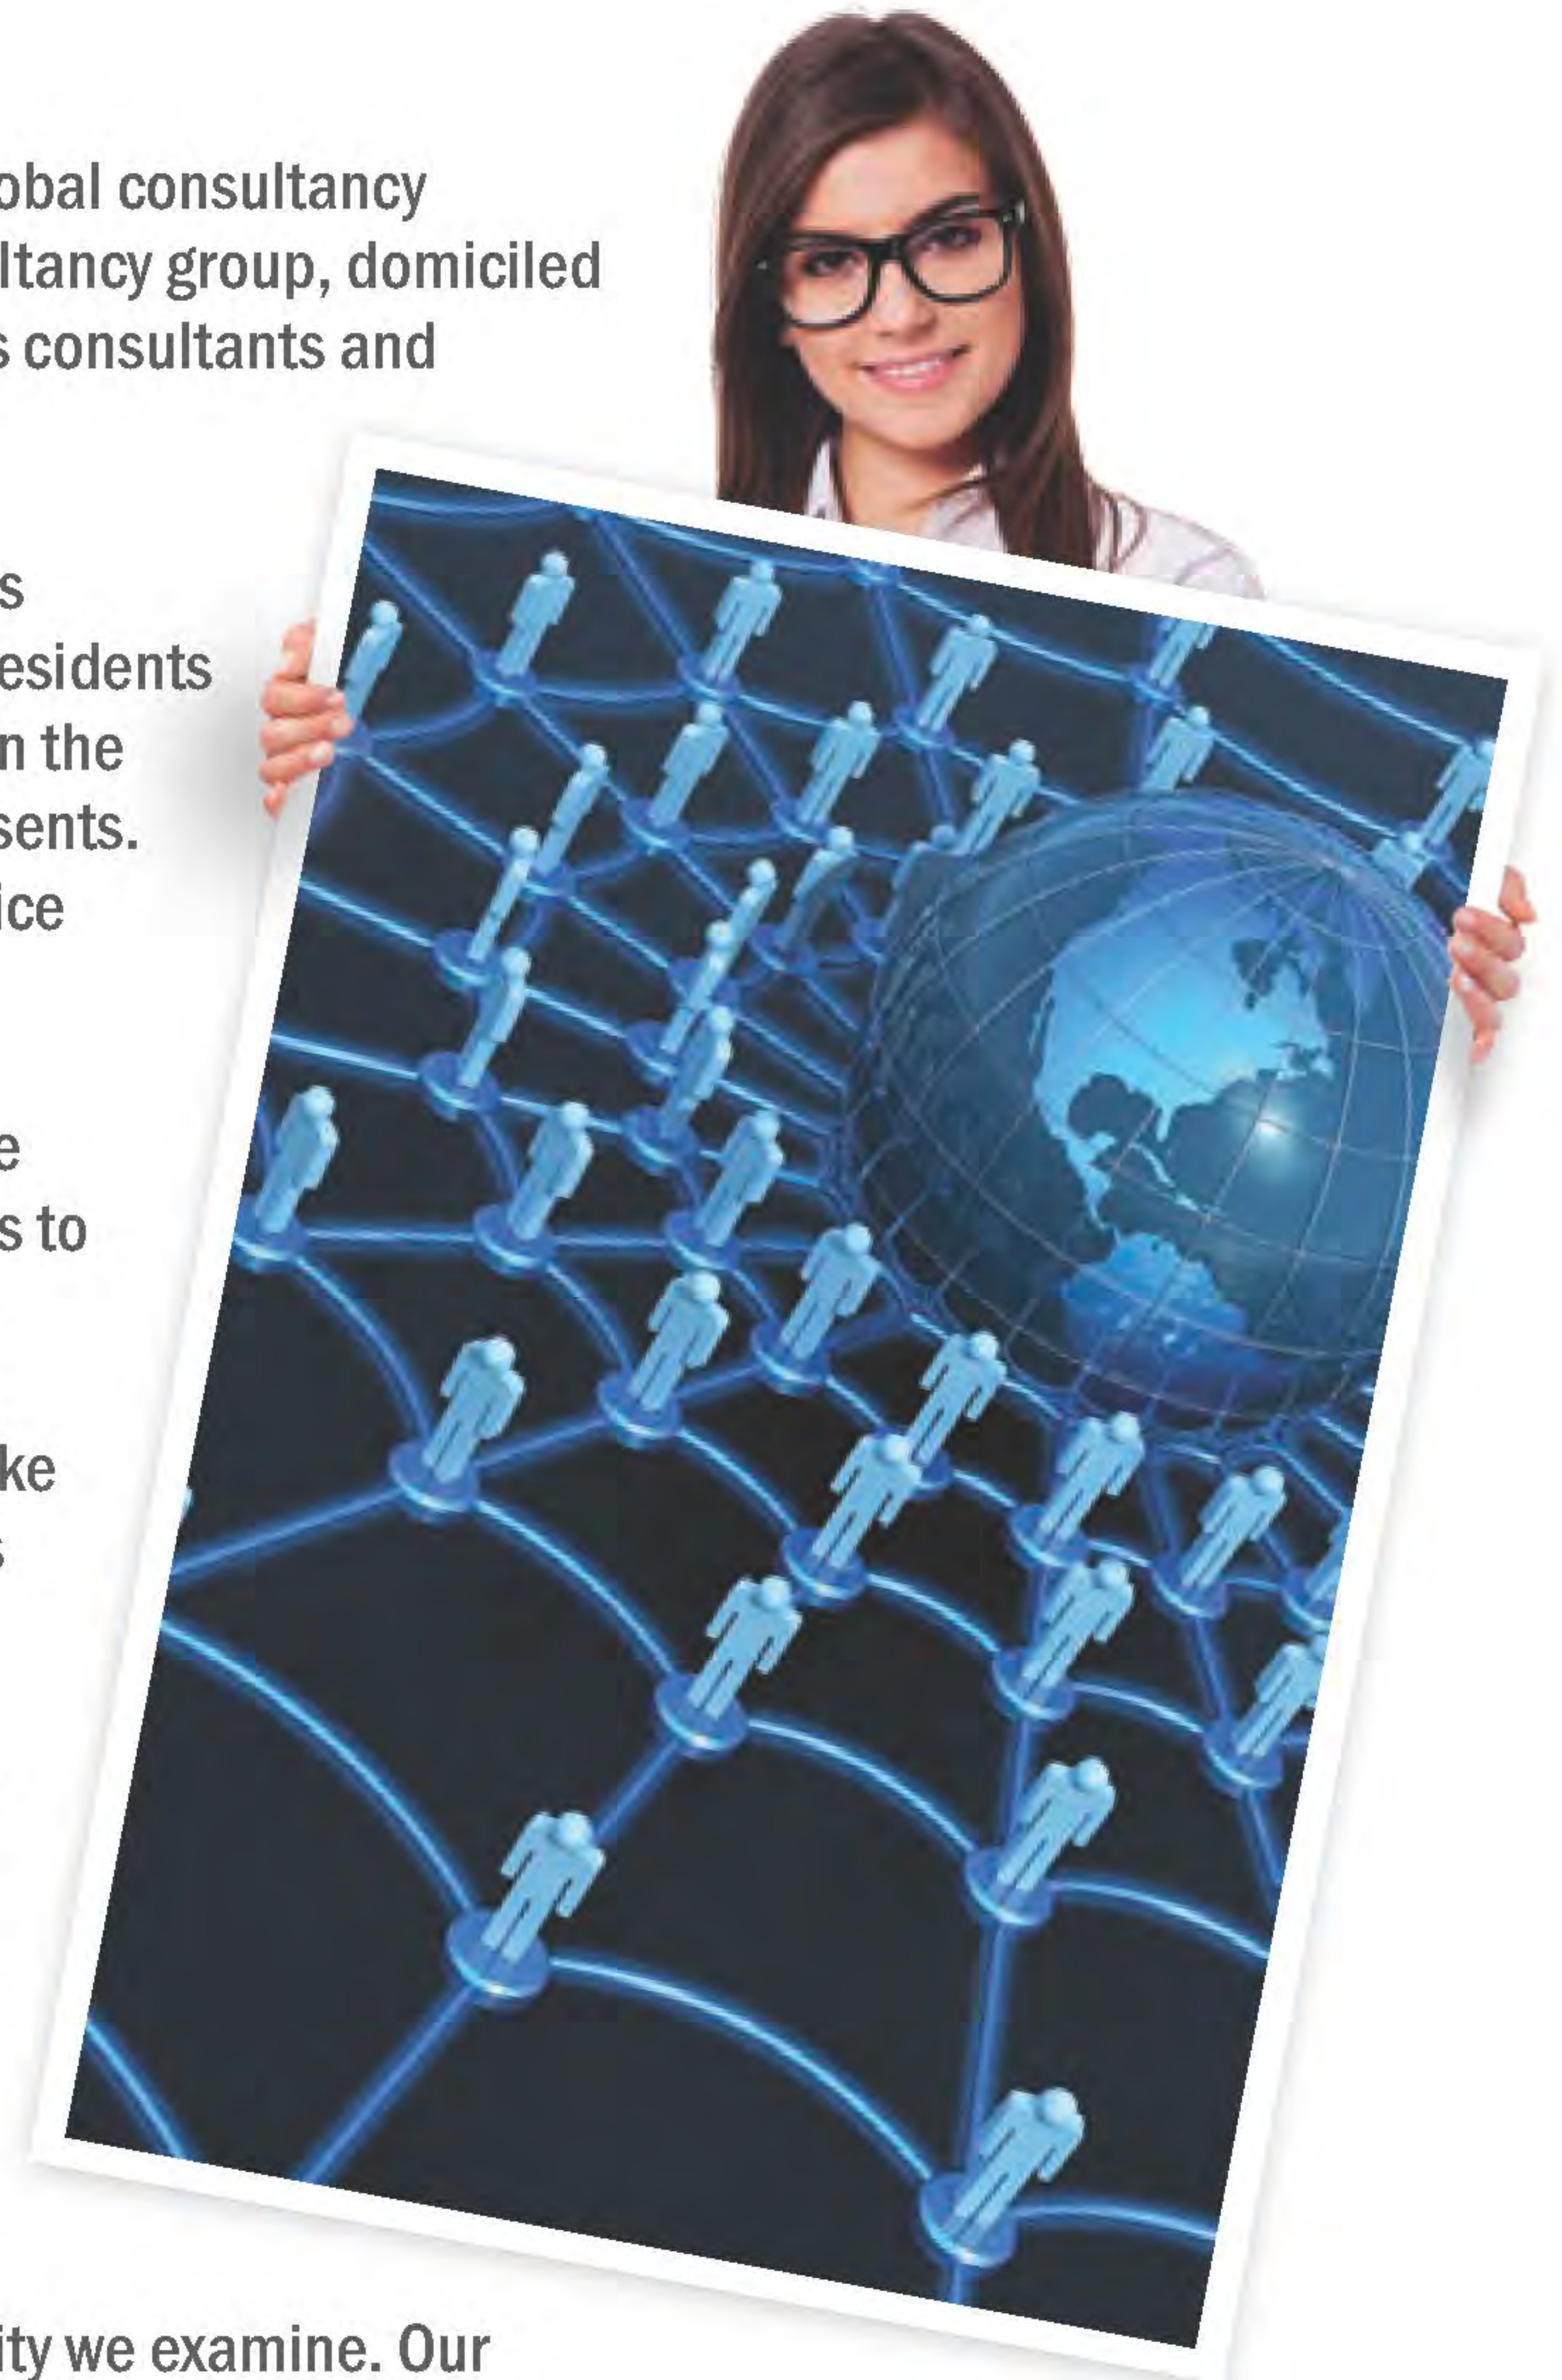

Thanks for your interest in Marvel System, we welcome you to our global consultancy network. Marvel System is a multi-functional global business consultancy group, domiciled in Pakistan, operating around the world through a group of business consultants and management experts located on every continent.

We assist companies in developing business around the world in this undertaking. We work through a network of Consultants and Vice Presidents so that there is never more than three degrees of separation between the Principal Consultant and the product or service that he or she represents. This person-to-person marketing approach for each product or service offers the ultimate in personal representation and exclusivity.

We operate in a variety of areas, also called out on our website in the area called “Services”. We bring only the highest quality Consultants to the table, representing the most exceptional opportunities and our Company has grown out of an original mission to develop business plans and to fund those plans. The Consultants of Marvel System take it upon themselves to make a market for both products and services worldwide.

Marvel System is seeking vendors of the highest level products with cache and niche appeal seeking to expand their marketplace worldwide who might be looking for an association with our group to assist in representing products and services through additional growth.

We seek only top of the line products. Our product line up, we feel, presents what we feel is superior when compared to every opportunity we examine. Our representation of SebaKMT, Honeywell, Panasonic, IBM, Cisco, Phillips, Dynacord are few examples of this.
